

TWO NIGHTS, THREE DAYS IN BEAUTIFUL WILLUNGA

Arrive in Willunga on a Friday and check into your accommodation. Whether it's the quaint Willunga Gallery Cabins on High Street, Mulberry Lodge, the eco-friendly Earth Ship, the historic Cobblers Cottage, or the peaceful Farm accommodation on the outskirts of Willunga, you're sure to have a lovely stay.

Once settled, make your way to Hither & Yon on High Street for a glass of fine wine, or Shifty Lizard for a craft beer. Take note of the various shops and cafes you might want to visit during your stay. They have everything from breakfast and lunch options to unique gifts you can take home. At the top of the mainstreet you'll also find the heritage listed old courthouse complex with slate museum, original cells, stable and police residence. As you walk down the mainstreet you can learn more about the history of the town by reading the inscriptions engraved into the footpath. If you're feeling active, head to the Willunga Golf Course for a round of golf. The 18-hole public golf course is located close to the mainstreet and recently attracted interstate and international professional golfers for the Webex Players Series.

In the evening, if you're celebrating something special, book a table at Muni for a degustation dinner. This exceptional restaurant has been recognized as Gourmet Traveller Australia's best new talent. If you're looking for something more casual, Moongarden offers artisan pizza and snacks in a cozy old building nearby. For pub lovers, Willunga has three to choose from, each offering a laid-back atmosphere and beer on tap.

On Saturday morning, check out the world-famous Willunga Farmer's Market. Grab some fresh produce, locally made chutneys, sauces, jams, olive oil, cheeses, seafood, meats or even some award-winning gin. Perhaps pick up some picnic supplies for the afternoon. At the market, you'll meet the grower and learn more about the sustainable food practices being utilised in region. The Fleurieu Peninsula truly is a food lover's paradise!

After the market, grab lunch at one of the local cafes like the Green Room, De Rose Kitchen, the Golden Fleece Cafe, or enjoy a traditional high tea at Tealicious.

In the afternoon, head west to the beaches at Aldinga and Sellicks. The beautiful coastline and stunning cliff tops are perfect for a leisurely bike ride or a peaceful walk. For the more adventurous, SUP Down South offers Stand Up Paddle board rentals, and even has SUP Yoga. The water here is clear and turquoise, perfect for a refreshing swim. From here you can enjoy an afternoon picnic and watch the sun set into to the ocean. If you want to stay closer to home, you can hike a section of the Willunga Basin Trail.

On Sunday, make sure to visit the world-renowned McLaren Vale wine region. Book a tour through Gone Awol Tours or hire an e-bike (there's several local businesses offering e-bike hire) and cruise the Shiraz Trail which connects to some of the wineries. Famous for its Shiraz and other Mediterranean varieties, the wine here is sure to delight your senses. Be sure to check out Battle of Bosworth Wines, they specialise in organic farming methods and are located only a short drive from the Willunga mainstreet and just off the Shiraz Trail.

Your weekend at Willunga has come to an end, but we know you'll be leaving with a full belly, new memories and a recharged battery.
